

Thank you for your interest in the Master Franchise opportunity.

Join a proven business model with Fresh & Healthy Brands, a leader in the quick-service restaurant (QSR). We are seeking motivated individuals or companies to take on master franchise rights in select regions or countries.

What We Offer

- Proven Business Model: Access to our established brand and successful operating systems.
- Comprehensive Training: Initial training sessions covering all aspects of operations, marketing, and management.
- Ongoing Support: Continuous assistance from our corporate team, including marketing, operations, and business development.
- Exclusive Territory: Control over a defined geographical area, allowing for strategic growth without competition from other franchisees.
- Marketing Resources: Access to a suite of marketing materials and campaigns to help drive sales.

Ideal Candidate

We are looking for candidates who:

- Have franchise or business development experience
- Possess strong leadership and communication skills
- Are financially capable of investing in a master franchise
- Share our passion for healthy QSR

Financial Overview
